No.I-11024/1/2022-NYKS

Dated the 01st June 2022

Dear Secretary,

The Department of Youth Affairs, Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India is celebrating World Bicycle Day on 03rd June, 2022 as part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. The Hon'ble Minister, YA&S along with other dignitaries will grace the main event at Delhi and flag off the cycle rally covering a distance of 7.5 km.

The program has been scheduled to be held in the morning during 6:30AM to 7:30 AM as follows:

- At Delhi with participation of 750 cyclists during launch of the program on 3rd June 2022 at Major Dhyan Chand National Stadium, New Delhi
- At all States/UTs capital with participation of 75 cyclists at each location on 3rd June 2022.
- At 75 Iconic Locations: 75 participants at each location on 3rd June 2022

2. The program will be unique in terms of scale and outreach as large number of youth from all over the country shall be participating in the event on institutional and voluntary basis with the objective of celebrating 75 years of India's Independence- Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, to cherish and follow the noble ideas that inspired freedom struggle. The program also envisages to enhance the spirit of brotherhood and nationalism while simultaneously popularising the usage of cycles to solve the dual issues of global warming and unhealthy lifestyle.

3. You may appreciate that the Department is making all efforts to celebrate the event with full fervor and having maximum jan-bhagidari. For this I would like to request you to ask officers/officials from your Ministry/Department/organizations to celebrate World Bicycle day i.e. 03.06.2022 by organizing similar cycle rallies in their respective residential areas. It is also requested that officers/officials from your Ministry/Department may be advised to be a part of the cycle rally being celebrated in Delhi voluntarily.

Kind regards

Yours sincerely

(Sanjay Kumar)

The Secretary,
Ministries/Department to Government of India.
